

Welcome to Health Tech Without Borders!

Dear HTWB Volunteer,

Welcome to Health Tech Without Borders (HTWB)! You join an incredible group of volunteers committed to providing immediate access to health resources in humanitarian emergencies. Thank you for your commitment and for joining our dedicated team of volunteers!

Get To Know Health Tech Without Borders:

Headquartered in Switzerland and a 501c3 in the United States, Health Tech Without Borders is a global non-profit organization aiming to mitigate healthcare crises by leveraging digital tools and technology to provide immediate access to health resources.

Health Tech Without Borders acts as an innovative hub that connects companies offering digital tools with experts in medical and psychological care.

Health Tech Without Borders focuses on supporting any person affected by humanitarian disasters while remaining non-sectarian and apolitical.

Our History:

Since our founding in 2022 in response to the aggression against Ukraine, we have expanded our efforts worldwide, collaborating closely with renowned universities and corporations. Some of our esteemed partners include Massachusetts General Hospital Center for Global Health, Katz School of Science and Health, Doctor Online, Helping Hand, and many more.

Our collective efforts have enabled us to provide medical and psychological support to more than 110,000 patients in crisis-ridden regions. Additionally, we have facilitated targeted training for more than 2,000 clinicians, ensuring they have the necessary knowledge and skills to deliver effective healthcare interventions.
